

University of Maryland Observatory presents

New Telescope Owner Nights

- Is that new telescope you got for Christmas still in the box??
- Have you used it a couple of times and quit in frustration??
- Telescope working fine, but you're tired of looking at the Moon and Saturn and wonder where to go to next??

No matter which category you fit into,
we can help!

What: An evening of assistance with your new telescope from Observatory Open House volunteers

Where: University of Maryland Observatory, located on Metzerott Rd between University Blvd and Adelphi, across the street from the University System of Maryland office building.

When: Wednesday 15 January 6:00 - 9:00pm and Saturday 18 January 6:00 - 9:00pm
Drop in any time during the open hours!

Admission: FREE! But please call Elizabeth Warner at 301-405-6555 if possible to let us know you are coming, the type and size telescope you have, and what kind of help you need. This will help us to better meet your needs.

For more information, check out our website at <http://www.astro.umd.edu/openhouse/> or contact Elizabeth Warner (301-405-6555, warnerem@astro.umd.edu).

