Announcement

Job Announcement Text:

The Department of Astronomy at the University of Maryland invites applications for a postdoctoral position to begin no later than September 2009. The research will be carried out in collaboration with Dr. Chris Reynolds and Dr. Cole Miller at Maryland, and with Dr. Joan Centrella and her numerical relativity group at Goddard Space Flight Center. The search is for candidates with significant numerical experience, with a research background in general relativity and numerical hydrodynamics and magnetohydrodynamics.

The successful applicant will have completed a Ph.D. by the time the position begins. The appointment will be for two years. Salary will be commensurate with experience, and funds are available for travel and other research expenses.

Applicants should send, by 1 April 2009, a full CV, a 2-page statement of research interests, and three reference letters to the address listed above. E-mail submission, in PDF format, is preferred.

Maryland is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer.

Included Benefits:
